1. Objectifs et contenu du cours :

This course provides an overview of English language and literature from 1066 to 1500 by looking at significant writers from the early Middle English and later Middle English periods. The course will consider two poems, a collection of stories, a chivalric romance and a mystery play. They will be analysed within their historical and social context, and a lot of attention will be paid to their cultural significance for the development of the English language.

2. Liste (provisoire) des textes à l'étude :

The Owl and the Nightingale
Langland, W. Piers Plowman
Chaucer, J. The Canterbury Tales
Sir Gawain and the Green Knight
The Second Shepherd's Play
