1. Contenu et objectifs du cours :

In our study of American literature of the later 20th century (1970–1999), we will examine the major themes and forms in prose and poetry. We will, in particular, be attentive to new and "novel" forms: Black American and women's storytelling (Baldwin, Morrison, Lorde), New Narrative tradition (Myles, Kraus), and poetic innovation (Hejinian, Cha, Jordan).

2. Modalités d'évaluation prévues :

Students will be evaluated according to: participation, oral presentations on the literature and theory, written reflections, and a final research paper, in preparation for an article or conference presentation.
